

ORDER

Considering:

- The current status of the COVID-19 pandemic in Portugal and the maintenance of the state of emergency decreed by the Government.
- The need to maintain the measures adopted in my order of 21 January 2021, in order to contain the COVID-19 pandemic among the academic community of the IPT in particular and in the surrounding civil community, in general.

1. I hereby determine that my order of 21 January 2021 laying down the restraining measures to be adopted at IPT shall be extended until 5 April 2021.

2. The provisions in the preceding paragraph do not preclude the measures described in that order from being readjusted, suspended or even ceased before that date, depending on the development of the pandemic situation and the assessment that is made at each moment of the adequacy of the measures adopted in order to contain, prevent and control COVID-19 pandemic or any determinations or recommendations of the public health authorities and the government.

Tomar, 15 February 2021.
