

Trnava University in Trnava

A university where tradition meets innovation

Why Trnava?

- A modern, dynamically developing city that breathes history at the same time
- A number of cultural and social facilities
- A city that lives by sports
- Full of students and young people
- By car, it's only a 40-minute drive from the capital city of Bratislava, 1.5 hours from Vienna, 2.5 hours from Budapest, 4 hours from Prague and Krakow

...and last but not least, you can walk everywhere in Trnava within 15 minutes

Why Trnava University ?

Historical Trnava University, established by Cardinal Peter Pázmaň in 1635, represents one of the oldest universities in Slovakia.

The university re-opened its activities in Trnava in 1992

The mission

- grounded in Christian values and focuses on providing a high-quality education while fostering moral and spiritual principles. It emphasizes academic freedom and independence from political and economic pressures, following the Great Charter of European Universities. The university is also committed to ecumenism, international cooperation, and supporting the cultural and scientific development of society.

The vision

- to become a modern and recognized academic institution that actively contributes to the development of a knowledge-based society, builds a high-quality scientific research base, and prepares graduates capable of critical thinking, creative problem-solving, and making an active contribution to societal development both domestically and internationally.
- The university also strives to create an academic environment where freedom of thought, innovation, and responsibility towards society are nurtured."
